CHANGES

LAST CHANCE

Final Model Run – The Corvette’s 2013 model run, the 60th Anniversary of Corvette’s first model run in 1953, is scheduled to be the final one for the sixth generation Corvette and marks the end of the following models for some time:

- ZR1
- Z06
- 427 Convertible
- Grand Sport Coupe
- Grand Sport Convertible

The 2013 sixth-generation Corvette model run will end production early in Q1 of 2013.

Ownership Experiences Ending – Owners should take advantage of the Corvette Engine Build Experience (PBC) while they can, as there are currently no plans to continue the program for the Corvette LS7 and LS9 engines after the 2013 model run. What’s more, the last scheduled Corvette Buyer Tour at Bowling Green Assembly is Friday, September 14, 2012. (Tours will resume at a later date that has yet to be determined.)

- Corvette Engine Build Experience (PBC) for Z06, ZR1 and 427 Convertible customers – An opportunity to be part of the hand-built production of the actual LS7 or LS9 engine that will go into the customer’s vehicle.*
- Corvette Buyer Tour – An opportunity for the customer to walk the Bowling Green production line as their Corvette is assembled. Arranged through the National Corvette Museum (visit www.corvettemuseum.org for details)

Personalize and Commemorate – Corvette offers customers many different ownership experiences.

- Corvette Personalized VIN Ending (PIN) – Customers may reserve the ending numbers on their Corvette. Restrictions apply
- Corvette Museum Delivery (R8C) – Customers can take delivery of their Corvette at the only national museum dedicated to Corvette
- Corvette ZR1 Driving School – Customers purchasing a new ZR1 model will have their tuition paid to attend Driving School at either Bondurant (Phoenix, AZ) or Ron Fellow’s School at Spring Mountain (Parump, NV)†
- Corvette Owner Corrals at ALMS Races – Opportunity for Corvette owners to get “up close and personal” with all the Corvette racing actions

* Customer responsible for travel to/from Wixom, MI.

† No dealer action required as customer receives mailing for offer. Customer has 1 year from delivery to enroll in class. Eligible customers will be responsible for their accommodations and travel.
